BROADWAY THEATER.

East Lynne.

One of the most complete and effective reproductions of East Lynne which has ever been set on tour will be given at the Broadway theater on Tuesday, November 9, by Joseph King's New York company. The company, scenic equipment and accessories are all to the standard required for an artistic presentation of the favorite old drama. The engagement is for one night only. 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents.

"The Third Degree."
The most startling dramatic sensation of the present season and one by the author of that former starter, "The Lion and the Mouse," is "The Third Degree," which, with the same elaborate stage equipment as characterized the former, comes to the Broadway theater on Friday, November 12, for one night under the management of Henry B. Harris, who also produced "The Lion and the Mouse."

Without a single improper line this play has succeeded by reason of its virility and without appealing to the morbid element that find their greatest theatrical entertainment in off-color plays. "The Third Degree" broke every house record previously established, and even through the Lenten season, the worst in all the year in New York, packed an audience near Hudson theater when many of the other houses had closed for this period.

It is the story of a girl of the people who marries the scion of an aristocratic family, for which she and her mother-in-law make an immense fortune. The story is a masterpiece of the pen, showing her worth by her untiring devotion and unselfish affection, thwarting the efforts of corrupt officials in their endeavor to make an innocent man the victim of misplaced justice.

BREED THEATER.

Eloping—Couple Pursued in Motor Boats.

One of the most exciting pictures seen at the Breed theater last night was the one in which the villain, arriving at a country summer resort and living under an assumed name, prevent his arrest on a charge of forgery, wins the affections of the young and pretty daughter of the farmer who takes him as a summer boarder. All goes well until the detective, who is after the young forger who involves the girl into an elopement plan, and finding the steamers along the river front all out of commission for the winter hires a motor boat and puts out for the opposite shore. No sooner had they started than the detective's board another motor boat and start in pursuit. One of the greatest motor boat chases ensues, and the exceedingly rough water that they meet with makes the chase all the more exciting and the picture is one of rare merit and interest.

The balance of the programme consists entirely of feature pictures, copious among them being one of the sea, showing a shipwreck, and nearly one-half of the picture is entirely of superb surf scenes.

Miss Florence Wolcott continues to thrill her audiences with the haunting songs from The Merry Widow, entitled My Villa, also singing the dainty Scotch illustrated ballad, My Bonnie Bluebell.

The Auditorium.

Mickie Feeley, the well-known pantomimist and comedy acrobat, will be seen at the Auditorium all next week. This clever performer has just finished an engagement as principal clown in one of the leading tented organizations.

One of the classic acts of the day is "The College Boy and the College Girl," presented by Jack and Agnes Rich, who do twelve minutes of song and talk.

Elsie Rose, the girl violinist, will present a neat, refined musical act, displaying rare and unusual talent on this kind of all instruments, the violin. Miss Rose is also a high class vocalist of exceptional ability.

A laughing number will be the comedy sketch presented by Kennedy and Vincent, which, according to advance notices, will make a big hit.

Miss Morelle will render for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the popular illustrated song, "Won't You Be My Baby Boy," and a high class song which is well suited to her clear soprano voice.

A special feature reel, A Trip to Yosemite, will no doubt duplicate the success made by our former scenic picture, Shoshone Falls. This film shows twenty of the most interesting spots of the Yosemite National park and Mariposa grove of big trees, in California. This is claimed to be the greatest scenic picture ever produced. Five other first class subjects will also be shown.
